Re: Letter in Good Standing

To whom it may concern:

The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks has 21 Lodges in the State of New Mexico. Each Lodge has received its inspection from Grand Lodge and is in compliance with all State and Grand Lodge rules and regulations.

I am requesting that your office issue to all Lodges in the State of New Mexico, along with their Liquor License, a Bingo/Raffle License and Gaming License when the Lodge has made a bona fide request for such a License.

The following New Mexico Lodges are awarded a "Letter in Good Standing": Las Vegas #408, Silver City #413, Santa Fe #460, Albuquerque #461, Raton #865, Roswell #969, Las Cruces #1119, Tucumcari #1172, Clovis-Portales #1244, Gallup #1440, Carlsbad #1558, Artesia #1717, Farmington #1747, Lordsburg #1813, Alamogordo #1897, Grants/Milan #2053, Los Alamos #2083, Ruidoso #2086, Belen #2499, Rio Rancho #2500 and Deming #2750.

Thank you for your help and consideration with this matter.

Sincerely,

Kandi Barks, PSP, President
New Mexico Elks Association
